I get confused when I read "near" and "near to" something. I often hear people saying "near" without "to", but then "near to" is also correct. For example read the following sentences:
Where is you...

OALD adds a note that Near to is not usually used before the name of a place, person, festival, etc. Not only is near me considerably more popular than near to me in both British and ...

hold me now touch me now Nothing's Gonna Change My Love For You Westlife Westlife Westlife I had to live my life without you near me ...

Can you tell me please if this sentence is grammatically correct: My school is near from my house.

Nothing's gonna change my love for you + Nothing's Gonna Change My Love For You If I had to live my life without you near me The ...
